I understand that you and

STATINTL

really did a great job in making 6 Black College Students feel at home here. They wrote a fine commendation back to us.
Congratulations. This kind of sensitive handling of people helps this Agency a lot.

Dear [redacted]

This could simply be a letter of thanks and acknowledgement of a finely conducted tour, but it's not. Why?

It was not an ordinary cold, bland 'tour'; instead, it was an extraordinarily meaningful learning experience shared by all of us.

NTL In fact, from the very first telephone call of inquiry, to the last returned Visitor's badge, we were treated and met with sincerity of purpose and cordiality. STATINTL

[redacted] Special recognition must, of course, go to [redacted] and his section(s) for their professional attitude, expertise, 'care', and expressed innovative excitement.

In addition, it is the consensus of our group that: (A) the tour was most stimulating; (b) more was 'learned' during the 2-1/2 hours than could have been 'taught' during normal college semester conditions; and (C) the tour should be an integral part of my course entitled, Graphics and Cartography--454.

We undersigned do hereby express a most sincere THANK YOU!

Director George Bush
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20005

Dear Director Bush:

As producer of the David Brudnoy show and a nephew of Dr. & Mrs. Walter S. Parks, Jr. of Middleland, Texas, I would like to extend to you an invitation to appear on the David Brudnoy show which can be heard over WHDH Radio (850am, 50,000 watts) here in Boston.

Recently, my aunt, Mrs. Walter S. Parks, Jr., was visiting my family in Massachusetts and mentioned that she and my uncle know the Bush family of Middleland, Texas. My aunt, although reluctant because she does not like to take advantage of personal relationships, said I could use her name in trying to reach you to be a guest on the David Brudnoy show.

David Brudnoy, who you may or may not know, is a writer for Nation Review Magazine and is a close personal friend of William F. Buckley, Jr. He is a libertarian conservative who believes in the operation of the Central Intelligence Agency as an important element in the defense of the United States. In other words, you would be dealing with a friendly interviewer who supports the CIA.

Personally, I had the pleasure of meeting you when you were Chairman of the National Republican Committee and spoke at our Annual Lincoln Day Dinner in Newton, Massachusetts. I understand from my aunt that since you have become Director of the CIA that you cannot answer any political questions. Mr. Brudnoy will confine his questions to the role and operation of the CIA and will remain as a-political as possible.

The David Brudnoy show is broadcast live, Monday-Friday, 10pm to Midnight EST. Since your schedule and commitments must be extremely burdensome in your role as director, I would like to make a conference call hookup. With a conference line, I can call you anywhere on the North American Continent when your schedule permits during our two hour segment on the air. The interview will be brief. All I'm asking is ten minutes of your time and I would not expect you to take any local phone calls.

I will call your Washington office in a couple of days to see when this can be arranged.

Best regards,

Robert W. Tennant/Producer
THE DAVID BRUDNOY SHOW
